Chapter 14 covers information on individual risk factors, adverse psychological effects, post-traumatic stress disorder, psychological ‘first aid’, management of mental health issues, components of an effective response, dealing with psychological problems in emergency personnel, mass sociogenic illness, behavioural changes following an incident, and psychological problems in children.